

Sikhi 201 Article Assignment

Topic Approval Due: Day 2 (Tuesday)

Outlines Due: Day 4 (Thursday)

Article Due: Day 5 (Monday)

Your final assignment for this class is to write an article (~1,000 words) incorporating the Gurmat framework.

This can be:

1. A persuasive essay, using the Gurmat framework to make a particular argument.
2. An informative exploration into a particular topic using the Gurmat framework
3. A deep engagement with at least 2 readings from the course, incorporating Bani, Tavarikh, and Rahit.

You will present your ideas for the article to your facilitators by Day 2. On Day 4, you will bring an outline of your article to present to your peers and facilitators, who will offer constructive feedback. The facilitators for 201 will approve each topic. You will have until next Monday (Day 5) to complete the blog post.

In the blog post, you must take a Gurmat-based position on a subject and support it using Bānī, Tavarīkh, and Rahit. Please talk to the facilitators if you have any issues or concerns.

Notes for good blogging (around 1000 words):

1. Use 8th grade English for accessibility.
2. Think about narrative: what is the narrative of your paper? What themes are you exploring? Is your topic too broad or too specific?
3. Think about newness. What new thing are you contributing to the conversation? If you are writing a persuasive argument, is it something that actually requires much persuading, or is it too simple? Are you offering nuance, contextualization, and analysis that is different from what already exists in the discourse? What new angles can you offer?

After Sidak, we may ask you to work with us to make additional edits, and we may publish your article on SikhRI's website.

Examples:

Here are some examples we think are particularly good:

Persuasive:

The Whitefly Brief: A Pelican Brief on the Punjab Situation

<https://medium.com/@rupinderpal/the-whitefly-brief-db08fd6db6d2>

OP/ED After Sarbat Khalsa, Now What?

<http://www.sikh24.com/2015/11/11/oped-after-sarbat-khalsa-now-what/#.WV8W7BPycI>

Informative:

Labh

<http://www.lhouse.co/labh/>